

What are your five senses? How do you know?

Use your senses to find different things as you walk along.

Can you find one thing for every letter of the alphabet? Use an adjective to describe what you find.

In the interest of preservation of life – please don't taste anything!

TOTAL

Count up your totals:

What was your highest total?

Why do you think that is?

What percentage (%) of the total is that?

How did you work that out?
